

David Dalrymple

DMin, Psychology/Clinical Studies

Practice:

Jungian analysis, individual psychotherapy, marriage, family, and group therapy

Positions: Former Vice-President of NAAP, former Chair of ABAP, Inc., current Executive Director of Accreditation of ABAP, Inc.

Education:

Ph.D. Candidate in Theology, Ethics, and the Human Sciences-
Chicago Theological Seminary

Doctor of Ministry in Psychology and Clinical Studies- Andover Newton
Theological Seminary

Master of Divinity- Thomas Starr King School for the Ministry in Berkeley

B.A. in Philosophy- University of Washington.

Certifications: Ordained Unitarian Universalist minister, Fellow in American Association of Pastoral Counselors, Licensed Clinical Professional Counselor

David has taught many courses, case colloquia, and published on psychoanalytic understandings of religious dissent and spirituality, pastoral care and counseling, marriage and the problems of intimacy, personality typology, imaginal approaches to dreamwork, masculine psychology, cancer care, and images of death and rebirth in fantasies of immortality. Dr. Dalrymple has done clinical work and supervision in medical and psychiatric hospitals, and has taught college courses in philosophy, psychology, religion and mythology. He has served on the Advisory Boards of Spring: A Journal of Archetype and Culture as well as the Shamanic Applications Review.