

Susan A. Eichenberger

Curriculum Vitae

Patients Served: Individuals, Couples, Groups

Supervision available: Group supervision for social workers and marriage and family therapy graduates.

Personal Statement:

The analytic journey is an inner quest deepening an understanding of the self. Marriage and Family Therapy examines how interactions between people touch on the inner vulnerabilities that are experienced. The combination of these systemic approaches and the analytic theories that inform them, are the basis of my theoretical orientation, which is predominantly Object Relational.

Educational Background:

1989 Ed.D. Counseling Psychology – University of Louisville

1979 MSSW—University of Louisville

1970 M.S. Education—Queens College of CUNY

1967 B.A.—Queens College of CUNY

Professional Certifications:

Psychoanalyst—Graduate of The Kentucky Psychoanalytic Institute (2007)

Licensed Clinical Social Worker (KY license #372)

Academy of Certified Social Workers

Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (KY license #0128)

Approved Supervisor American Association of Marriage and Family Therapy (1998)