

Joel Gavriele-Gold, PhD

<http://www.drjoelgold.com>

Practicing Psychoanalyst (NPAP) and NYS certified Clinical Psychologist (Fordham, 1981).

Patients Served: Children, adolescents, adults, couples.
Individual and group treatment.

Specializations: child play therapy, couples, developmental and life-cycle issues.

Joel Gavriele-Gold comes to the KPI with a breadth of experience as a psychoanalyst and clinical psychologist.

He has presented his work in psychosomatic disorders in the workplace at Oxford University, England as well as his views on managed care and the dissolution of the therapeutic alliance at Oxford University. He has been a guest lecturer at Charles University Prague and at the FA Institute, Stockholm Sweden. He has presented his work on Psychoanalysis and the Human-Animal Bond at Oxford University, the Kentucky Psychoanalytic Institute and at Yellem College, Jerusalem.

He is the author of many articles on the use of his dogs in his practice in working with children and with adults with specific developmental issues. He has been a guest on Good Morning America, Men are From Mars, etc., Dr. Joy Brown, the Maury Povich Show and numerous local TV shows in connection with his book, When Pets Come Between Partners.

He is a senior member and control analyst at The National Psychological Association for Psychoanalysis (NPAP), The Institute for Expressive Analysis (IEA) and the Harlem Family Institute (HFI). At NPAP formerly, Dean of Training, Treasurer, Corresponding and Recording Secretary, Chair Standards & Ethics, Admissions, Membership Committees.

At IEA Director of the Institute and more than 20 years as a member of the Board of Directors. Faculty: NPAP, IEA, KPI, HFI.