

Rochelle Shatzman, PhD
2005 KPI Faculty Member of the Year

Patients Served: Groups and Individuals

Papers: Resistances in Working with Multiple Family Members; The Significance of the Analyst's Name, Working with Difficult Patients

Certifications: Psychoanalysis
PhD Heed University, Hollywood, Florida

Dr. Shatzman has been a practicing psychoanalyst for over 25 years, currently residing in New York.

She has been a faculty member at numerous psychoanalytic training institutes, including: Colorado Center for Modern Psychoanalytic Studies, Institute for Modern Psychoanalysis, Philadelphia School of Psychoanalysis, and the Kentucky Psychoanalytic Institute. Shelly has taught workshops on such topics as Management Skills, Building Team-work, and Encouraging Cooperation and Responsibility in the Workplace for companies such as Chase; Nu-Way Oil, DiBlasi Motors; Wantagh Auto Sales; VHA Metro.

During her tenure at the Kentucky Psychoanalytic Institute, Dr. Shatzman has taught courses on Narcissistic Resistance, Dream Analysis, and Psychosomatics.